

Pellustro Observations

Recommendations:

- Login Page
 - Can change Sign In with Google icon as shown below
A rectangular button with a light gray border. On the left is the Google 'G' logo in its multi-colored font. To the right of the logo, the text 'Continue with Google' is written in a dark gray, sans-serif font.
 - Put Left arrow icon before 'Back to Login Page' as shown below
A rectangular button with a light blue border. On the left is a blue left-pointing arrow icon. To the right of the icon, the text 'Back to WordPress.com' is written in a blue, sans-serif font.
 - and remove fullstop from the same
 - Logo on login page should redirect to pellustro.com or element-22.com
- Analytics
 - We can introduce a zoom functionality into charts specially in component level chart to look more closely.
 - Can determine where our best participants located
 - Can identify worst scoring assessments
 - Highest and lowest scores - category, components & capability
 - Can group by category, components & capability of an assessment in graph to show growth of that over the years
 - Create a graph to show analytics of the participants of their corresponding assessment, also to show activity of a single participant
- Dashboard
 - A notification bell icon can be placed to show notifications regarding assessments, or participation of a user in an assessment
 - Can replace "Type" to Role or Profile in user profile section
 - Navbar items should be highlighted with their icons when clicked on them